Cultural Critique

John Mowitz, Cesare Casarino, and Simona Sawhney, editors

"International in scope, this journal offers excellent coverage of race, class, and gender issues."
—Magazines for Libraries

The pathbreaking journal of cultural criticism

Cultural Critique provides a forum for creative and provocative scholarship in the theoretical humanities and humanistic social sciences. Transnational in scope and transdisciplinary in orientation, the journal strives to spark and galvanize intellectual debates as well as to attract and foster critical investigations regarding any aspect of culture as it expresses itself in words, images, and sounds, across both time and space.

Cultural Critique is published three times a year in winter, spring, and fall and is available online through Project MUSE and JSTOR.

Manuscripts for submission and books for review should be addressed to:
